

Altered Books - Visual Memories Workshop

Wednesdays from 1:00 - 3:00 PM, March 3rd
through April 28th

As part of the Creative Aging in Our Communities grant, the library will be offering a series of workshops, giving senior citizens the chance to create their own personal altered books.

Local artist Maggie Zander will lead the sessions, offering advice & guidance.

No prior art experience is necessary! Simply bring old pictures, souvenirs, letters, mementos, etc. and a willingness to experiment.

Program funded with a grant from the Helen Andrus Benedict Foundation, and co-sponsored with the North Salem Seniors.

There will be a final reception for the program at the library on April 30th.
