

News from Caramoor Center for Music and the Arts

Our good friends at Caramoor keep us well informed about what is happening and their latest news is almost too much to absorb since there is something for everyone and some folks might just want to camp at Caramoor so as to not miss a thing.

In fact, Caramoor suggests that you can introduce your family to Caramoor and enjoy the sound of the concert from the Picnic Laws. All you have to do is purchase Al Fresco ticket for just $10 and you can order online. Concert Al Fresco is a fun and easy way to enjoy Caramoor. Take your grandkids.

Caramoor finishes up the Summer Season with an eclectic program starting August 5 with the Jasper String Quartet, followed by Jazz Festival I and II and finishes on August 11 with South Indian Music. All very, very reasonably priced with excellent seating and the unmatched joy of Caramoor.

Starting September 24, Caramoor swings into its Fall Festival and it would pay to get a head start by contacting Caramoor right now. Ask about the Fall Festival and the upcoming Concerts in the Music Room. It saves to subscribe now and you make sure you get to the programs you really want to see and hear.

ALOFT members: Remember to ask for member discounts when you call the box office.
